Explanatory Note

(This does not form part of the notification, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The High Court of Kerala, in its order dated 19-2-2007 in an unnumbered Contempt of Court Petition, directed the registry that if any information is lodged even in the form of a petition inviting the High Court to take action under the Contempt of Courts Act or Article 215 of the Constitution, where the informant is not one of the persons named in section 15 of the Act, it should not be styled as a petition and should not be placed for admission on the judicial side. Instead, such a petition should be placed before the Chief Justice on the administrative side and if the Chief Justice or such other Judge as may be designated by him for the purpose, considers it expedient or proper to take action under the Act, shall direct that the said information be placed for preliminary hearing. The order also highlighted the necessity of framing rules in this regard as suggested by the Apex Court in P. N. Duda's case. The above amendments are made in pursuance of the said order.

The above notification is intended to achieve the said object.
